

TOTAL(LY) INCLUSIVE ECLIPSE

Planning through the Lens of Inclusion

Anita O'Brien, M.A., CTRS
Rochester Accessible Adventures

INCLUSION IS INTENTIONAL

- Who To Engage
 - 26% of the population
 - Intellectual, Developmental and Physical Disabilities
 - Children, Youth, Adults
- Where To Market This Event
 - Families
 - Facilities – Senior Living, Nursing Homes, Group Homes, Day Programs, Service Providers
 - Municipal Recreation
 - Employers

What is Your Message?

- “ASL interpreter on site during event”
- “Accessible Parking Map”
- “Take A Virtual Tour BEFORE You Arrive”
- “Quiet/Sensory Rooms Available During Event”
- “Request Large Print/Braille Materials”
- “Contact Our Inclusion Coordinator with Access Questions”

If you explicitly invite everyone in the family, you will most likely
GET THE WHOLE FAMILY!

MASTER PLANS GUIDE YOUR INCLUSION IMPLEMENTATION

- Facility
- Parking
- Restrooms
- Activities
- Marketing

- Routes of access
- Options for Viewing
- Alternate Types of Materials
- Imagery of people with disabilities on your promotional materials

ACCESS, PROCESS & EXPERIENCE

- Physical
 - access
 - e.g., mobility
- Cognition
 - processing information
 - “how to”, “then what”
 - rules, socially accepted expectations
- Sensory Experience
 - e.g., sight, sound
 - stimulation

Involve your community!

- Engage service organizations
- Invite people with disabilities to the planning tables!

<https://accessibility.ku.edu/best-practice-guidelines-planning-accessible-event>
www.inclusiverec.org Inclusion U Training

AND WE THOUGHT THAT WAS COOL...

Just wait for this

TOTAL(LY) INCLUSIVE
ECLIPSE!

Anita O'Brien, M.A., CTRS

aobrien@RochesterAccessibleAdventures.org

Rochester Accessible Adventures

www.RochesterAccessibleAdventures.org

