TOTAL ECLIPSE 2024

Bringing the Overview Effect down to Earth

Total Eclipse Festival aims to unite humanity with a unique event where art, science, and advocacy coalesce into one experience, headlined by the Total Solar Eclipse of 2024.

By bringing the Overview Effect down to Earth, we want people to walk away with compassion, understanding, and a sense of purpose to take care of our planet and each other.

Why Texas?

Texas has the best chance of clear skies in early April.

This map shows where the shadow of the moon will produce full darkness. The red line is the very edge of the shadow. The closer you get to the blue line the longer you will be in darkness. From 1:45 seconds at UT Austin to 4:26 on the blue line (the "centerline" of the eclipse).

Austin is the cultural epicenter of the Eclipse. It's easy to get to and has lots of support.

Let the Cosmos Move You

"Monday's eclipse was perhaps a celestial nudge, literally and metaphorically, to lift our eyes for a moment away from the trivial and to the important."

-Sir Richard Branson
